

The World Around Us

WebQuest Description: Today we are going to learn about our world around us. We are going to take a journey to different parts of the world from north to south and east to west. We are all different and we are all unique in our own ways.

Grade Level: 3-5

Curriculum: Social Studies

Keywords: world maps, atlas, culture, history, geography,

Published On: 2013-03-11 07:28:11

Last Modified: 2012-03-03 05:38:16

WebQuest URL: <http://zunal.com/webquest.php?w=137364>

Introduction

G 3.3.1 : The purpose of this lesson is to be able to read the elements of maps and globes, find a location, use compass rose, and equator, four types of oceans and the seven continents.

Tasks

I can statement: 1. I can: use a basic elements of maps and globes to find locations and follow directions 2. I can: compare and contrast maps and globes. 3. I can: Use the basic elements of maps and globes to find locations and follow directions. 4. I can: Create a map depicting the basic elements for others to find locations and follow directions.

Process

Process: 1. Introduction to the lesson : use KWL chart(Warm up) 2. introduction of the lesson which include the reading of the map, identifying the different elements of the maps, locating the seven continents, locating the four types of oceans and locating the equator. 3. students will create a map of their place, city, village using the elements of the map. 4. students will show and tell their work. 5. Students will use the rubric as their guideline.

Evaluation

Category and Score					Score
				Total Score

Conclusion

I can statement: Did We... 1. use a basic elements of maps and globes to find locations and follow directions 2. Use the basic elements of maps and globes to find locations and follow directions. 3. Create a map depicting the basic elements for others to find locations and follow directions.

Teacher Page

This activities were created to help students in a deeper understanding of the world in physical and cultural terms and know how to use geographical tools and technologies to represent characteristic places. Standard 3

Standards

Credits

Other