

Guided Reading

WebQuest Description: A place for teachers to learn more about the structure and expectations of guided reading and the reading writing workshop.

Grade Level: College / Adult

Curriculum: English / Language Arts

Keywords: Reading, Language, Writing, guided reading groups, reading workshop, Independent reading, writing workshop

Published On:

Last Modified: 2014-03-22 10:53:00

WebQuest URL: <http://zunal.com/webquest.php?w=236228>

Introduction

Reading and writing workshop to help students grow in reading and writing ability and confidence.

Tasks

Teachers will need to organize and plan to have a great reading and writing workshop.

Process

What do teachers need to learn and do to create a community of readers and writers so students become successful readers and writers and live a full life?

Evaluation

Using the CAFE to help your students focus on learning.

Category and Score					Score
				Total Score

Conclusion

How do I get around to the students I need to see and talk to day in and day out?

Teacher Page

Where should you begin to start planning for reading and writing centers or stations?

Standards

Credits

Other

Word work is an essential part of the reading program in guided reading.

Literacy in a fifth grade classroom.

Literacy in a fourth grade classroom.

Literacy in a third grade classroom.

Videos specifically for second grade teachers!

First Grade teachers watch and learn!

Kindergarten teachers watch and learn!