Introduction

In order to prepare for viewing A Christmas Carol, you will be researching several aspects of Victorian England. You need to answer the questions on your webquest worksheet in order to understand the video tomorrow. You will be able to find the answers to all the questions on the handout through the links about what life was like in Victorian England but you will need to hurry to finish by the end of the class. Good luck.

Tasks

Use the links below to answer questions about the daily lives of people in Victorian England and their holiday traditions.
