

Steps for Taking the GED Exam

WebQuest Description: Successful achievement of the General Educational Development(GED)test will lead to a high school equivalency credential for adult learners without a traditional high school diploma. This GED credential can be used to pursue a college education or career development.

Grade Level: College / Adult

Curriculum: Life Skills / Careers

Keywords: Adult Education, GED Testing, Adult learners, Math, Reading/ABE,Community Colleges, Dropouts, Equivalency Tests, High School Equivalency Programs, Participant Satisfaction, Program Evaluation, Questionnaires, School Surveys, Student Characteristics, Two Year Colleges

Published On:

Last Modified: 2015-11-01 22:04:05

WebQuest URL: <http://zunal.com/webquest.php?w=300179>

Introduction

Life in general has its unexpected challenges and getting a high school diploma in the traditional sense is sometimes impossible. The American Council on Education (ACE) and GED Testing Services offers the General Educational Development (GED) assessment test as an equivalent to a high school diploma. Passing the GED examination can expand one's career opportunities for future career growth and development. Image provided by:

(<http://www.bing.com/images/search/?q=GED+Testing+Service&id=2436E0371B9699E026927CCE32A5EFE8302167C8&FORM=BRQONH>).

Tasks

For this Web Quest, you will read about the steps on how to obtain a GED. After a careful evaluation of your skill set via a practice exam you will then take the actual examination in any subject matter (of your choice) that includes the following subject matters and they are as follows: Language Arts and Reading, Math, Science and Social Studies per the State of Michigan requirements. You will then take the GED practice exam too see if you meet the minimum qualifications with a score of 150 or higher. If so, you will then schedule to take the actual GED examine (free of charge) via a school district waiver at Detroit Public Schools, GED Testing Center located at 1641 Porter St. Detroit, Michigan 48216.

Process

For this WebQuest, you will read about the steps on how to obtain a GED. Step 1. Meeting State Requirements. Step 2. Prepare for the Exam. Step 3. Register Online with Pearson Vue Testing Services Inc. Step 4. Take the test and achieve a passing score of 150 points or higher in each subject matter. Final Step. Access test scores/score report.

Evaluation

Evaluation GED Testing Services, summarizes that the new computerized GED test was designed to measure the national career- and college-readiness standards within the United States with common core standards that is assessed with the below rubric in the areas of Reading, Writing, Math and Language Arts and Reading. Information provided by: prolitteracyednet.org.

Category and Score					Score
				Total Score

Conclusion

Conclusion The best WebQuests inspire students to see richer thematic relationships, to contribute to the real world of learning. <http://tom march.com/writings/ascdwebquests/>). Thus, the importance of the Adult Learner obtaining their GED because it will enable students of all background and ages to reach to a higher platform of academic achievement and ascertain numerous financial, personal and social benefits.

Teacher Page

Standards

Credits

Mission: I, Sieata R.M. Flaggs-Duhart, will live everyday life with the highest principles, morals and standards that will aid others in enhancing their "quality of life".

Vision Statement: My vision is to construct a reputation of being trustworthy, empathetic and impactful administrator within my organizational setting. I am committed to growing as a leader and delivering value that will aid me in meeting my professional and educational goals.

Value Statement: I value dependability, trustworthiness, open mindedness, self-discipline, originality, innovation, and the inclination to continue learning and growing academically and personally.

Professional Goals: To complete my Masters of Arts (M.A.) Degree in Higher Education Leadership from Siena Heights University within the next 9 months so that I can begin to make a significant impact amongst adult learners (by aiding them in meeting their academic goals) within the Detroit Public School district.

To ensure that the Adult Learners have the scholastic tools in place to succeed personally and professional beyond the classroom environment.

Other