Introduction

The last decades of the 20th century were ablaze with social protest movements. You already know about Civil Rights and Anti-Vietnam protest movements...now you'll learn about other groups that protested for change throughout the 60's, 70's, and 80's. You will need headphones, the video links provided here...and your focus. A handout is provided, but if you are doing this outside of class, you can download it here. Watch each video, filling out short answers on your guide as you listen and watch. Pay close attention to ALL of the videos, don't skip parts just because the guide doesn't ask a question. Ready to begin? Click on TASK in the left pane when you're ready to begin!

Tasks

Directions: Read and follow along on your handout as you watch these short video clips. Use headphones and stop and start as needed. This is due at the end of class, so stay focused!
