

By the end of this project 11-12th grade Students will be able to see things from different perspectives, to cope with complex issues and avoid one-dimensional answers, to evaluate situations and issues to look for solutions with the involvement of all parties. They will be able to gain self-knowledge and introspection.

Teacher Page

I as a teacher always ask myself why? and make my students ask themselves the same question as well, because I believe that they need to think through the values and needs of learning process and especially studying a foreign language.

For Teachers: Hold a short debriefing session to explore the following questions. What did you learn during this activity? What kind of relationship is there between the unpleasant events and useful experiences? Is there a common pattern? How could this activity be made useful for you in your classroom? What learning outcomes would you expect to reach with your students?
