

Descriptive Writing (The Use of Adjectives)

WebQuest Description: This Webquest will be able descriptive writing specifically the use of Adjectives in this form of writing...

Grade Level: 9-12

Curriculum: English / Language Arts

Keywords: Descriptive Writing, Adjectives

Published On:

Last Modified: 2018-12-12 20:23:45

WebQuest URL: <http://zunal.com/webquest.php?w=397624>

Introduction

Adjectives are used in our daily lives to express how feel, our emotions and to describe just about everything we see, hear, taste, touch and smell. This web-quest will highlight examples, tasks, pictures, etc. of descriptive writing (the use of Adjectives). Additionally, this web-quest will help students and teachers learning of adjectives and that adjectives can be taught through play and that it can be easy when the learning involves games, songs, and books that are already a part of the pupils everyday learning experience.

Tasks

Students will watch videos and take notes to help them to understand the different types of Adjectives and their relevance. From the videos watched, the students should be thoroughly define the words adjectives and descriptive adjectives. They should also be able to list the seven different types of adjectives and the degrees of verbs.

Process

The students will be (in pairs) asked to write a paragraph describing the route from Mandeville to there school in cooperating the description of buildings and other objects that can be used as landmark or a description of their best-friend.

Evaluation

Students should follow the links below and should write a paragraph no less than six sentences on each scenery. This should be done individually in the students note book. They will be allotted 10mins to have this task completed and approximately four students will read aloud their paragraphs.

Category and Score					Score
Use and Understanding of Adjectives
				Total Score

Conclusion

This Web-Quest was about Adjectives, the Types of Adjectives and the Degrees of Adjectives. Students were given various tasks to assist them with reinforcement of what they had learnt through the various pictures videos and audios that were used. It is imperative that in your daily writing and speech you are able to correctly use the different types of Adjectives and to their correct degrees. That 's it for the Web-Quest. Hope you had fun Learning.

Teacher Page

Teachers it is imperative for us as educators to take advantage of these educational technology tools such as this Web-Quest that can be definitely used to enhance student- interests and learning on a whole.Â Â

Standards

Students enjoys learning when being engaged in using technology and will be better able to remember the content area studied.

Credits

Other