

provided links to research the given questions on French culture.&nbsp;Make sure to gather sufficient information on past and present&nbsp;culture.&nbsp;2. The first two journal entries are written in the first person in which the student adopts the personality of a wealthy aristocrat and a working class citizen.3.&nbsp;The third journal entry requires the student to use the information they have gathered and complete a comparison between past and present societal differences in France.4.&nbsp;The fourth and final entry is where the student uses the information they have learned and applies it to their own classmates.&nbsp;Students will observe their peers and&nbsp;recognize differences among styles, appearances, and relationships that exist.&nbsp;&nbsp;Closure:&nbsp;The conclusion of the webquest leaves the student with several open ended questions.&nbsp;Class discussion will follow the completion of the project in order to make sure that all students have a&nbsp;total understanding of the setting, culture, and theme of "The Necklace".&nbsp;&nbsp;Such questions might include:&nbsp;-Did your research help you gain a better understanding of the story?-Can you easily compare past and present French culture and/or societal differences?-Were you able to relate any occurrences in the story to your own life?-How has this project and its research changed your outlook on your everyday life?&nbsp;&nbsp;Assesment:&nbsp;There should be a formal assessment of the students' four journal entries.&nbsp;A rubric should be used to grade such things as content, creativity, mechanics, and level of focus.&nbsp;Rubrics can be changed to accomodate your style of teaching.&nbsp;&nbsp;Assignment:&nbsp;The night prior to the webquest, students should read the short story "The Necklace" by Guy de Maupassant and write down any questions they had while reading.&nbsp;After completing the webquest students could:-continue reading short stories by Guy de Maupassant-compare Guy de Maupassant's writing syle in his other short stories, to that of what they have seen in "The Necklace".&nbsp;&nbsp;Additional Resourses:<http://www.eastoftheweb.com/short-stories/UBooks/Neck.shtml>&nbsp;(This is a link that provides the actual text of "The Necklace")<http://www.enotes.com/necklace>&nbsp;(This link provide important notes and a summary of important details from "The Necklace")<http://www.storybites.com/demaupassantnecklace2.htm>&nbsp;(Here is a commentary on Guy de Maupassant's "The Necklace")&nbsp;&nbsp;Credits:&nbsp;<http://www.discoverfrance.net/France/Paris/index.shtml>&nbsp;(general information on Paris)<http://www.marxists.org/history/france/index.htm>&nbsp;(revolutionary France)<http://www.socialstudiesforkids.com/articles/holidays/bastilleday.htm>&nbsp;(Bastille Day)<http://www.state.gov/r/pa/ei/bgn/3842.htm>&nbsp;(French Culture)<http://www.infoplease.com/>&nbsp;(wonderful site to search for needed information)&nbsp;Picture Credits:<http://www.ebooks-library.com/images/Authors/FGDM.jpg><http://www.unc.edu/~getkara/The%20Necklace/Necklace.jpe><http://www.abracadabrajewelry.com/images/Mehera-Dia-Necklace.jpg><http://www.innersync.com/about/images/process.gif><http://www.osama.lt/fini2.gif>

Standards

Credits

Other